

Jillian Sneyd
Consultant
Town Planner

“Clients can find the development process confusing and overly complicated. Our role is to steer them through and bring clarity.”

With close to 30 years' experience in both the Local Government and private sectors, Jillian Sneyd has a deep understanding of all aspects of strategic and statutory planning.

She also holds a Diploma in Law which informs and complements her work. This knowledge of legislation, coupled with strong communication skills, allows Jillian to navigate clients through the planning process and find the best solution to any obstacles.

Such is her experience, Jillian is regularly called as an expert witness by the Land and Environment Court. She has also appeared before the Joint Regional Planning Panel and consulted to the State Government.

Jillian is also experienced in chairing public meetings.
