Agenda - Day 1

Day 1 – Technical day will offer presentations and/or Q&A sessions. Hosted in person at Camden Council, the technical day is to cover a range of topics inline with the conference themes. Our vision is that day one will provide a high-level technical Contribution Planning learning opportunity.

Guest speakers and proposed session topic's:

- Innovation and change
- Local relationship with State infrastructure
- Gaining support from executive leadership

- Taking Action, without waiting for the reforms

- Voluntary Planning Agreements vs Work-In-Kind Agreements
- Surplus credits
- Understanding the law and legislation

Agenda – Day 2

Day 2 – Usually a meeting of the Southern Councils Development Contributions Group and following on from the last meeting held in March hosted by Shoalhaven City Council. On this occasion the invite is being extended to all Council's within NSW.

- Offering an open discussion forum on a various of Contribution Planning topics
- Presentation – How to facilitate change within your own team, streamlining processes, identifying where improvements can be made
- Site Visits to Julia Reserve Skate Park and Dawson-Damer Splash Park

The formal agenda and invitation to attend the NSW Contribution Planning Conference & Technical Day will be circulated to all Council's within NSW.

Our Aims

- To create the beginning of an industry best practice approach across Contributions Planning in NSW
- To facilitate discussion between Councils, allowing us to network, problem solve and think outside the box for creative and innovative solutions
- To empower and encourage each other in taking a proactive approach within our Councils by displaying strong leadership and decision making skills
- To attain the best possible outcomes we can for our infrastructure within our communities

Who can attend?

All NSW Contributions Planners/Strategic Planners currently working for NSW Local Government

Invites will be forwarded to all NSW Councils by mid June 2023.

If your Council does not receive an invite by late June 2023 or you would prefer that we email you directly rather than your Council mailbox please contact:
